COMPLIMENTS OF

BIGGER & BETTER

Here's what's new this year

■ Programming is divided into five main categories: Basic, Clinical, Population, Special Focus and Frontiers in Science. See the Final Program for a list of specialties within each category.

■ One fee. Full access. Scientific Sessions registration now includes access to the Arrhythmia Research Summit, Resuscitation Science Symposium and Cardiovascular Nursing Clinical Symposium.

■ Test your cardiac knowledge, skills and critical thinking in AHA's new hands-on, interactive Simulation Zone, including Body Interact and Mechanical Circulatory Support Simulation, located in the Science & Technology Hall, Booth 101.

■ Health Tech sessions on Monday explore the role of technology in the treatment and prevention of cardiovascular disease with the goal of improved outcomes.

■ Learn about genomics through case-based, active-learning activities at the Genomics Boot Camps on Saturday, Nov. 7, and Sunday, Nov. 8.

Make your time in the Science & Technology Hall pay off big. Pick up a "BIG DRIVE" activity card. Have your card punched by nine exhibitors for a chance to win daily prizes.

The MOBILE MEETING GUIDE APP is your source for:

Instant access to up-to-the-minute Sessions details, navigation help, interactive audience participation, live sessions streaming and online networking.

The FINAL PROGRAM is your source for:

Comprehensive information about all Sessions 2015 programming, faculty, times and locations. Pick up your copy at Registration in Hall C.

The SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY HALL PLANNER is your source for:

Highlights of scientific programming; exhibitor and product category details; and Chicago dining and attractions information.

The SESSIONS DAILY NEWSPAPER is your source for:

Live news about Scientific Sessions, including coverage of Late-Breaking Clinical Trials, special lectures and more.

The SYMPOSIA LOCATOR MAP is your source for:

List of Unofficial Satellite Events with dates, times, locations and registration information.

■ Keep Sessions at your fingertips with the Mobile Meeting Guide App. To download the app, search "AHA Events" in Google play and the App Store.

■ Extend your learning to the Science & Technology Hall. Engage with more than 200 exhibitors, learn in the Poster Sessions, connect with researchers at Meet the Trialists, grab a free lunch in the Cardiovascular Expert Theaters, get hands-on CPR training and more.

Old friends and new faces

Don't miss these great networking opportunities

■ Science Subcommittee Collaboration Station Science & Technology Hall, AHA HeartQuarters, Booth 859
